School to Community Transition Project

Release of Information Authorization

Dear Parent/Guardian:

As a part of the interagency planning process for transition, service providers need to receive information prior to your child's final year of school in order to plan for his/her post-school needs. This release authorizes The Arc of Philadelphia to share confidential information on the student listed below with the Partners in the CEOs Project and post school service providers for 3 years from the date of signature. Confidential information to be released may include pictures of students for agency's use, educational, psychological, medical, social and vocational information relevant to the student's needs as an adult in the community. The information may be shared, released or disclosed: in person, by phone, fax, mail or email. The information shall only be released as it relates to the Walmart Foundation School-to-Community Transition Project.
