

Vision for Equality

Serving People with Disabilities and Their Families with the support of Philadelphia Intellectual Disabilities Services

ACCEPTANCE AS A DEVELOPMENTAL PROCESS

Acceptance does not mean giving up
By Robert Naseef, Ph.D.

April 14th 6:30PM - 8PM
Via Zoom

ACCEPTANCE DOES NOT MEAN GIVING UP

It is not making war or peace with autism or other challenging developmental conditions. It means doing our best living day-by-day to find what is often an elusive balance as our family member grows and develops through the lifespan.

THIS PRESENTATION WILL:

Draw on Robert Naseef, Ph.D.'s lived experience and professional expertise that goes beyond the stages of grief to embracing life as it is evolving and changing.

- Please be sure to register before this session. Find the information below.
- For more information, email visionforequality@visionforequality.org
- Robert Naseef, Ph.D. has a distinct voice as a psychologist and father of an adult son with autism. He has spoken around the country and trained professionals internationally in treating autism and other developmental disorders and supporting families.

REGISTRATION

Visit this link to register for this session:
<https://tinyurl.com/2c3t8u59>

You will receive the Zoom Meeting information after you register

You can also register by calling (267) 702-1601

For ADA accommodations, please contact visionforequality@visionforequality.org two weeks before the event

THIS SESSION IS PART OF OUR ANNUAL CREATIVE COMMUNITY LIVING OPTIONS SERIES

Every Spring, Vision for Equality organizes our Creative Community Living Options Series which is a series of learning opportunities designed to help the caregivers of someone experiencing an intellectual and/or developmental disability.

The series is developed for families by families, in collaboration with topic experts.