

BEYOND GROUP HOMES

Housing Options for Adults with Developmental Disabilities

April 19th 10AM - 2PM
Via Zoom

THIS SESSION WILL:

Explore various housing options, funding sources and service models that provide greater control for self-advocates and families than traditional group homes.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

Reverse life sharing, family purchased homes, home ownership by adults with developmental disabilities, ownership by trusts, rentals, housing subsidies, shared housing, additions.

- Please make sure you register prior to attending on the link below
- For more information, email visionforequality@visionforequality.org
- Presented by David Gates, a Senior Attorney and Director of Policy based in Philadelphia Health Law Project's Harrisburg office

REGISTRATION

Visit this link to register for this session:
<https://tinyurl.com/5ey348nd>

You will receive the Zoom Meeting information after you register

You can also register by calling (267) 702-1601

For ADA accommodations, please contact visionforequality@visionforequality.org two weeks before the event

THIS SESSION IS PART OF OUR ANNUAL CREATIVE COMMUNITY LIVING OPTIONS SERIES

Every Spring, Vision for Equality organizes our Creative Community Living Options Series which is a series of learning opportunities designed to help the caregivers of someone experiencing an intellectual and/or developmental disability.

The series is developed for families by families, in collaboration with topic experts.