TRANSITION TO ADULT MEDICAL CARE

Transition to Adult life is an important milestone in anyone's life, but it's especially important for those who experience intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. We often only talk about transition from school, but healthcare transition must be a part of the plan.

THIS PRESENTATION WILL:

Join Dr. McCormick as he shares with us how to better prepare for pediatric to adult healthcare. The four sessions being offered will build upon each other to help you build a better plan.

- Please be sure to register before this session. Find the information below.
- For more information, email visionforequality@visionforequality.org
- Presented by Dr. Andrew McCormick, MD, FAAP, Director, Healthy Transitions Program at UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

THIS SESSION IS PART OF OUR ANNUAL CREATIVE COMMUNITY LIVING OPTIONS SERIES

Every Spring, Vision for Equality organizes our Creative Community Living Options Series which is a series of learning opportunities designed to help the caregivers of someone experiencing an intellectual and/or developmental disability.

The series is developed for families by families, in collaboration with topic experts.
